20. Plaintiff was subjected to severe and ongoing harassment, with Mercolgliano making racially motivated comments to Plaintiff.

21. Mercolgliano would make racially motivated comments regarding the “queens” (African-American employees) in the department not trusting white employees in the

23. Plaintiff was held to a separate standard than that of her white workers, including when Plaintiff was falsely accused of having inappropriate behavior toward patients, and co-workers.

adverse and would dissuade a reasonable worker from exercising and/or attempting to exercise their rights and benefits under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. §2000, et seq. and the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act, 33 P.S. §951, et seq.

33. Defendants had a continued need for the work that Plaintiff had been performing.

34. Plaintiff complained about the discriminatory conduct she was experiencing, however, Defendants took no action.

35. Notwithstanding, Plaintiff's complaints and clear indication to Defendants that the aforesaid comments and conduct were unwelcome, unwanted and upsetting, the harassing conduct continued throughout the course of her employment with Defendants.

At no time did Defendants, or any of the principles, supervisors, managers, officers, directors, or agents of Defendants, institute an effective grievance procedure designed to eliminate racial discrimination of employees and no reasonable steps were taken to prevent the same in the workplace; and if said policy existed; Defendants failed to follow any requirements of said policy.
